

The Hausfeld Medical Relief Fund

Sometimes families need financial help despite the best of plans and even in the face of good financial stewardship. And so until further notice, Cornerstone Financial Counselors is recommending financial support for the Hausfeld family to help them pay for some substantial medical expenses they're incurring in the course of trying to get totally and completely healed.

Several members of this family are facing major illness and it's at such times that people could use a helping hand in love from folks who are in good health both physically and financially.

If you feel a leading to help this family, you could send your check in any amount to the following special fund:

The Hausfeld Medical Relief Fund
10621 North Kendall Drive
Suite 113
Miami, Florida 33176

This is a fully tax exempt fund and your donation will be tax deductible. The fund will return a receipt for your tax purposes.

If you have any questions, please call Cornerstone Financial Counselors toll free at 1-800-357-4223. God bless you.
